

Utility Round-Up Program Application

The Village of Yellow Springs Utility Round-Up Assistance Program provides limited financial assistance to eligible utility customers who are at risk of utility service disconnection. Funding for this program is provided entirely through voluntary donations from community members.

Applications are reviewed monthly, and assistance is awarded based on available funding. Assistance is not guaranteed.

Application Deadline: Applications must be received by 12:00 p.m. on the 20th of each month to be considered during that month's review.

Maximum Assistance: Up to $400 per household, subject to available funding.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for assistance, applicants must:

- Have received a delinquent utility bill or disconnection notice.
- Not have received Utility Round-Up assistance within the past 12 months.
- Agree to pay any remaining balance or enroll in a Village payment plan (unless prohibited by a landlord and supporting documentation is provided).
