

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, Jody Jason Farrar was born July 2, 1968 and lived her whole life as a champion of the lost, the hungry, indeed of anyone needing a friend. After spending her childhood in Georgia and raising her children, she moved her family to Yellow Springs in 2005 and lived here for the next 20 years.

Whereas, she immediately had a deep impact on the town she loved. She worked in many local businesses, making lifelong friends everywhere she went. All were welcome in Jody's house.

Whereas, in life she strove to pass on to her children her ideals of fierce empathy, radical kindness, the healing power of laughter, and the true value of hard work.

Whereas, she devoted herself to healing life's wounds through home-cooked meals and laughter. Jody collected oral histories from all walks of life and was an avid storyteller. They were as essential to her as the air she breathed. Those who needed a roof, a meal, a hug, or just some good conversation knew she would always be there for them with open arms.

Therefore, I, Steve McQueen, Mayor of Yellow Springs hereby declare June 20th, 2026, Jody Jason Farrar Day!

JODY JASON FARRAR DAY

We encourage all villagers to have a meal, have a laugh, and tell a friend a story about Jody!

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and the seal of the Office of Mayor of the Village of Yellow Springs to be affixed on this 20th day of June, 2026.

Mayor Steve McQueen II
