

RESIDENT RESOURCES

Below is a list of institutions and organizations within the Yellow Springs community that serve as valuable resources to residents.

Antioch College

Antioch College is a private liberal arts college where students have agency to design their education, to own that education, to govern their college, to collaborate with their faculty, and extend their classroom learning into the real world.

Arts Council

The Yellow Springs Arts Council supports local arts infrastructure through program opportunities, publicity, education, fiscal sponsorship, advocacy, and coordinated partnerships across the community.

Community Children's Center

The Yellow Springs Community Children's Center provides affordable daycare and education through a creative curriculum administered by a nurturing and supportive staff.

Greene CATS Public Transit

Greene CATS provides safe, reliable, and accessible public transit service for all residents of Greene County.

Greene County

Greene County serves a population of over 172,000 people.

Greene County Career Center

The Greene County Career Center empowers students through advanced technologies, integrated instruction, and community partnerships to succeed in career, college, and life.

Greene County Learning Center

The Greene County Learning Center provides a safe, individualized, encouraging environment and develops and provides creative, efficient, and customized educational services to students.

Greene County Public Library

The Yellow Springs branch of the Greene County Public Library has a collection of over 50,000 items including children's literature, young adult, adult, special items, and special collections.

Miami Township

Miami Township is one of twelve townships in Greene County and is governed by a three-member board of trustees.

Regional Income Tax Agency

The Regional Income Tax Agency provides services to collect income tax for municipalities in the State of Ohio.

Senior Center

The Yellow Springs Senior Center enhances the dignity, independence, and quality of life for seniors in Yellow Springs and Miami Township, and fosters interaction among them and with the entire community.

The Antioch School

The Antioch School is a private, democratically run learning environment for Pre-K through 6th grade students that prioritizes hands-on experiences that encourage independent thinking, creativity, and problem-solving, allowing children to explore at their own pace.

Yellow Springs Schools

The Yellow Springs Exempted Village School District is a public school system that serves approximately 700 students, in grades K-12, at Mills Lawn Elementary, Yellow Springs Middle School, and Yellow Springs High School.